Nomination Committee

Terms of Reference

Adopted by the Board on 14 October 2014 and last revised on 13 May 2026

1. Membership

- 1.1. The committee shall comprise at least three directors. A majority of the members of the committee shall be independent non-executive directors.
- 1.2. Only members of the committee have the right to attend committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the chief executive, the head of human resources and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate and necessary.
- 1.3. Appointments to the committee are made by the board of directors (the “Board”) and shall be for a period of up to three years, which may be extended for further periods of up to three-years, provided the director still meets the criteria for membership of the committee.
- 1.4. The Board shall appoint the committee chairman who should be either the chairman of the Board or an independent non-executive director. In the absence of the committee chairman and/ or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting from those who would qualify under these terms of reference to be appointed to that position by the Board. The chairman of the Board shall not chair the committee when it is dealing with the matter of succession to the chairmanship.

2. Secretary

The company secretary or his or her nominee shall act as the secretary of the committee and will ensure that the committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to the issues.

3. Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two both of whom must be independent non-executive directors.

4. Frequency of meetings

The committee shall meet at least twice a year and otherwise as required.

5. Notice of meetings

- 5.1. Meetings of the committee shall be called by the secretary of the committee at the request of the committee chairman.
- 5.2. Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date, together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the committee, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors, no later than five working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time.

6. Minutes of meetings

- 6.1. The secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.
- 6.2. Draft minutes of committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the committee. Once approved, minutes should be circulated to all other members of the Board unless in the opinion of the committee chairman it would be inappropriate to do so.

7. Annual General Meeting

The committee chairman should attend the annual general meeting to answer any shareholder questions on the committee's activities. In addition, the committee chairman should seek engagement with shareholders on significant matters related to the committee's areas of responsibility.

8. Duties

The committee should carry out the duties below for the parent company, major subsidiary undertakings and the group as a whole, as appropriate.

The committee shall:

- 8.1. regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge, experience and diversity) of the Board and make recommendations to the Board with regard to any changes;
- 8.2. give full consideration to succession planning for directors and other senior executives in the course of its work, and oversee the development of a diverse pipeline for succession, taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the company, and the skills and expertise needed on the Board in the future, and having regard to diversity, inclusion and equal opportunity;
- 8.3. keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the marketplace;
- 8.4. keep up to date and fully informed about strategic issues and commercial changes affecting the company and the market in which it operates;
- 8.5. be responsible for identifying and nominating for the approval of the Board, candidates to fill Board vacancies as and when they arise;
- 8.6. before any appointment is made by the Board, evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge, experience and diversity on the Board, and, in the light of this evaluation, prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment. In identifying suitable candidates the committee shall:
 - 8.6.1. use open advertising or the services of external advisers to facilitate the search;
 - 8.6.2. consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds;

- 8.6.3. consider candidates on merit and against objective criteria and with due regard for the benefits of diversity on the Board, including gender, taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the position;
- 8.7. for the appointment of a chairman, the committee should prepare a job specification, including the time commitment expected. A proposed chairman's other significant commitments should be disclosed to the Board before appointment and any changes to the chairman's commitments should be reported to the Board as they arise;
- 8.8. prior to the appointment of a director, the proposed appointee should be required to disclose:
 - 8.8.1. any other business interests that may result in a conflict of interest. These must be authorised by the Board before appointment and any future business interests that could result in a conflict of interest must not be undertaken without prior authorisation of the Board; and
 - 8.8.2. Other significant commitments with a broad indication of the time involved. Additional external appointments or future commitments should not be undertaken without prior approval of the Board.
- 8.9. ensure that on appointment to the Board, non-executive directors receive a formal letter of appointment setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service and involvement outside Board meetings;
- 8.10. ensure that, following appointment, non-executive directors receive a full, formal and tailored induction on joining the Board;
- 8.11. review the results of the Board performance evaluation process that relate to the composition of the Board;
- 8.12. review annually the time required from non-executive directors. Performance evaluation should be used to assess whether the non-executive directors are spending enough time to fulfil their duties;
- 8.13. work and liaise as necessary with all other Board committees, ensuring the interaction between committees and with the Board is reviewed regularly; and
- 8.14. Consider proposals for the re-appointment or promotion of directors, or any proposal for the dismissal, retirement, non-reappointment or any substantial change in their duties or responsibilities or the term of their appointment.
- 8.15. The committee shall also make recommendations to the Board concerning:
 - 8.15.1. formulating plans for succession for both executive and non-executive directors and in particular for the key roles of chairman and chief executive, and any changes to the succession planning process if its periodic assessment indicates the desired outcomes have not been achieved;
 - 8.15.2. suitable candidates as new directors and succession for existing directors;
 - 8.15.3. membership of the audit and remuneration committees, and any other Board committees as appropriate, in consultation with the chairman of those committees;
 - 8.15.4. the re-appointment of any non-executive director at the conclusion of their specified term of office having given due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of knowledge, skills and experience required;

8.15.5. the re-election by shareholders of directors under the retirement by rotation provisions in the Company's articles of association, having due regard to their performance and ability, and why their contribution is important to the company's long-term sustainable success in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required and the need for progressive refreshing of the Board taking into account the length of service of individual directors, the chair and the Board as a whole (particularly in relation to directors being re-elected for a term beyond six years);

8.15.6. any matters relating to the continuation in office of any director at any time including the suspension or termination of service of an executive director as an employee of the company subject to the provisions of the law and their service contract; and

8.15.7. the appointment of any director to executive or other office.

9. Reporting responsibilities

9.1. The committee chairman shall report to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.

9.2. The committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed and adequate time should be made available for Board discussion when necessary.

9.3. The committee shall produce a report to be included in the company's annual report to describe the work of the Committee which shall include:

9.3.1. the process used in relation to Board appointments, its approach to succession planning and how these support the development of a diverse pipeline;

9.3.2. how the Board evaluation has been conducted, the nature and extent of an external evaluator's contact with the Board and individual directors, and overview of the outcomes and actions taken, [and how it has or will influence Board composition];

9.3.3. the policy on diversity and inclusion, linkage to company strategy any measurable objectives that it has set for implementing the policy, and progress on achieving the objectives;

9.3.4. the gender and ethnicity balance of the Board, senior management and all employees; and

9.3.5. the process used to make appointments and explain if external advice or open advertising has not been used. Where an external search agency has been used, it shall be identified and a statement made as to whether it has any connection with the company or individual directors.

10. Other matters

The committee shall:

- 10.1. have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the company secretariat for assistance as required;
- 10.2. be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members;
- 10.3. give due consideration to all relevant laws and regulations, including the provisions of The UK Corporate Governance Code (published in January 2024), and the requirements of the UK Listing Rules and any other applicable rules, as appropriate; and
- 10.4. arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

11. Authority

The committee is authorised by the Board to obtain, at the company's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its terms of reference.
